Child Protection & Justice Conference

2026 Sponsorship Opportunities

Pennsylvania's premier gathering of child protection professionals, legal advocates, and justice leaders.

NOVEMBER 16-17 2026

Why Sponsor the 2026 Conference?

The Child Protection & Justice Conference brings together the region's most dedicated professionals working at the intersection of child welfare, law enforcement, healthcare, and the legal system. This is not a traditional nonprofit event — it is a high-caliber, nationally recognized professional conference that draws decision-makers, practitioners, and advocates from across Pennsylvania and beyond.

Who Attends

Child welfare professionals, prosecutors, law enforcement, pediatric clinicians, mental health providers, educators, and policymakers — all united by a commitment to child safety and justice.

Expected Attendance

400+ registered professionals from across Pennsylvania and neighboring states, representing government agencies, hospitals, law firms, nonprofits, and academic institutions.

Why Sponsors Matter

Sponsorship directly enables world-class programming, nationally recognized keynote speakers, and accessible registration for frontline professionals who protect children every day.

Brand Alignment

Align your organization with one of Pennsylvania's most respected child protection platforms — gaining visibility among senior professionals across healthcare, legal, and public safety sectors.

> When you sponsor the Child Protection & Justice Conference, you're investing in safer communities while positioning your organization alongside leaders advancing child protection across Pennsylvania.
